“ What a great person Jerry was to have known. He had a big heart for all people. Jerry was our Santa Clause every year and the juveniles we served loved every moment of him acting in this role. I saw him a couple of years ago at a eye appointment. He was in great spirits talking about his life after Rader. He enjoyed being around his family and the importance of family. Jerry is another fallen angel from Rader but one that will not be forgotten. RIP Jerry, we will meet again. Beverly Parker

“ Jerry was the cutest baby. He had rosy cheeks that just begged to be pinched, easily of course. I'm his aunt and my favorite memory of Jerry was when my mom was babysitting with him on a spring day while his mom was teaching school. He was supposedly taken a nap in a bedroom where the bed was pushed up next to a window. The window was open and kid like he was playing with the hook that held the screen. He evidently fell or climbed out of the window. She was washing dishes and looked up as Jerry walked in the front door. Imagine her surprise when her 3 year old grandson who was supposed to be resting was out exploring the neighborhood. Rest in peace, beloved nephew
