“ I will miss Jerry so much!!!! He and I enjoyed sharing old Simeroth stories at reunions. Also Jerry, Chris, and I shared a lot of funny memories of Arty Facts. Dill Pickles are a favorite of a lot of the Simeroth but none more so than Jerry. Know you are in Heaven whispering in God's ear about some pranks or jokes that he should play on your loved ones and family. Rest In Peace Cousin Jerry!!!! We will be together on the other side someday!!! 💔💔💔

“ Jerry was such fun to be around. He loved his dill pickles & I loved to make them & sending them to deer camp. As soon as Don would return home I always asked him if everyone liked my pickles. His response was Jerry sure did. It just made my heart smile! We loved you like a brother & we are going to miss you horribly!

“ Jerry was a great man and the best jokester! On our last business trip he borrowed his granddaughters unicorn helmet, he said he might need it with my driving. I also have never met anyone that had such a huge love of pickles! I am so sorry for your loss, thoughts and prayers for the entire family.

“ I have known Jerry since I was in the 7th grade. I was in band with Joey. This memory is difficult. 16 years ago, i was living in Dallas and i found out Jerry, Terry, and Joey were living there as well. Joey and I got an apartment and Jerry and Terry moved back to Oklahoma. While helping them pack the Uhaul, i found Jerry's trumpet he used in high school. I asked him how much he wanted for it and he just gave it to me. Ten years ago, I started volunteering with Bugles Across America. Using that trumpet, I have honored over 100 Veterans, including my grandfather and Jerry's father. And now I will use it to honor Jerry. Rest Peacefully
