“ 'I worked with Jodie at Childrens Orchard a few years ago in Owasso. Jodie was such a sweet girl, with an amazing work ethic. She was so happy, and was so very excited about life. She had such a beautiful soul. I"m so very very sorry for this loss. My prayers are with her family and friends. Prayers for Peace and Strength during this difficult time. Fly high sweet girl, fly high and free. '

“ *'To Jodie: I am happy I had the joy of knowing you and working with you.
\\n\\n\\nTo her family: She was freaking awesome!! I wish I had the words to ease your families pain or have an answer to make it make sense but I cannot. Smile everyday for her. Laugh (and cry too) for her. She had an amazing sense of humor and that comes from family. Cindy my heart goes out to you and always know lil" Jodie will always be with you and be your baby girl. I will continue to pray for you all. Stay strong and fight the evil who brought upon death and remember that God promised to wipe away EVERY tear!!'*

“ ‘There are not enough words to express by heartfelt sadness & sympathy for you as parents & a sibling. Please know others have cried for your precious baby girl too. I also believe she has a beautiful set of the most gorgeous angel wings God ever made & she is flying & keeping all of you rapped tightly holding you close in loving embrace ! We too are keeping your family close in our hearts & prayers. Much love, Tammy Brown’
