“ I worked with "John" at Bradley Oldsmobile from 1970 - 1974 in Tulsa. In the midst of all the dishonorable distractions of the '70's, he was a man of tremendous conviction, steadfast in his faith and great character. I don't remember him ever being judgmental or unkind about anyone's behavior even in the most unfavorable circumstances. I always considered him a friend although we lost contact when I left Bradley for another dealership. He truly was beacon of refreshing light in many of our lives. I know he has received his reward and I pray for peace and comfort for his family.
