“ Dean and his wife were great friends to my parents, Shirley and Leo, while young married couples raising children in Tulsa. They shared many connections through Hillcrest Baptist Church in Tulsa as well. Later in life Dean built a home for them in Owasso. My parents always had great respect for Dean, fond memories and glad to know him and Sylvia. My condolences to the Foster family. Karla (Turner) Price

“ In the 90's help Dean coach a baseball team on which his grandson Andrew and my son David played. Dean was not only one of the kindest men I've known, but he really knew the game of baseball. The boys learned a lot about all aspects of the game, but they couldn't have possibly had a man who better exemplified strong, godly character than Coach Dean. I thoroughly enjoyed the times we spent together, and I know that he will be sorely missed by his family and all of those whose lives he touched.
