“ So very sorry to hear that Juanita has left us but know she is at peace. I learned early when I worked with Linda, her daughter that Juanita knew exactly what she wanted, when she wanted it, and how she wanted things. She always had a good reason to speak her mind, but then had such a soft touch, esp. when she would bring us goodies she had made. I know she loved her grandchildren very much loved her place in Owasso. Juanita definitely left her "mark" on this world but thankful we will see her again. May she RIP. By now, she is probably organizing everyone making sure all are following Jesus' rules and conditions.
