“ A friend in need is a friend indeed. Kenny has truly been an AWESOME friend. I broke my leg and ankle unloading round bales with Kenny. He took me to the hospital and later bought a spear for the tractor loader, so it wouldn't happen again. He's pulled my kid's cars out of ditches and mud holes, taken my cows to the sale and the vet. Kenny has always been there and always called when any of my family's health was in question. I've hated to see what he's had to endure the last few months, but he's a fighter and more than a friend. He'll be missed, but Judy will be happy to see him in Heaven. See you in Heaven Kenny. We will be friends forever.

“Skinny Kenny was my dad’s friend, so I considered him my friend! When I was a teenager, I was backing out of the driveway in the pouring rain, and I went right into the ditch! I called my dad and my dad called Kenny! In the evening darkness and heavy rain, with my car in the ditch filling with water, I did not wait long for Kenny and Randy to show up! Randy attached a chain to the car because Kenny wasn’t getting in the water, and Kenny pulled the car out of the ditch! I was a relieved teenage girl!

Years later as an adult with my husband, Kenny came to the rescue and helped us again! Kenny laughed and we remembered the incident when I was a teen.

I’ll miss him. He was a good friend.
