“ I was heartbroken to learn of Kim's passing. As childhood playmates in Sperry—when she lived across the street from my grandma—we shared so many joyful adventures. I still remember climbing the tree in her backyard and making the rounds to visit neighbors together. Those moments have stayed with me all these years, and I'm so grateful for the laughter and friendship we shared. She will always hold a special place in my heart. - Mandy Eddings

“ Kim was part of a bible study group I had at my house for 7yrs. We spent many times of laughing and crying among us. Even after the group disbanded, we still got together at Christmas for brunch, a time of fellowship, and exchanged ornaments through the "dirty santa" exchange. Kim loved it! The last time we were together, she decided she wanted her own ornament she had brought to give in the exchange. So she lovingly, gleefully took it back through the exchange! We had a great laugh over it!
That is what I will miss the most...her laugh!
She loved staying at my house and caring for my dogs Max and Buster Browne. I will miss her!

“ My favorite memory of you, darling Kim, was actually our last time together. Standing in the rain in that long line at the only food truck at the outdoor concert. Didn't bother us, you of course laughing! I'll always remember you laughing! See you soon!!❤️❤️

“Wow. I can't believe that Kim is gone from earth. She was always one that could make me laugh so hard every time I was around her. She had a way of saying things that would make me smile. I met her while I was directing choir and music at First Baptist Church Owasso, and she was a faithful choir member. I remember her singing "Love in Any Language" and "Rise Again," while I was there. She and Amy were close friends while I was there. She and I took a trip to OK City, I think, to what we thought was a Point of Grace concert, only to discover it was an evangelical crusade! She, Amy, and I would sing in the car from Tulsa to Tahlequah when she was attending school there. Before that, I would give her rides from Sequoyah Point Nursing home where she worked to her apartment, since she would walk what seemed like 3 miles away often in the cold. She would bring me a candy bar or a coke and was always grateful. She did not want to be a burden. I always tried to talk her into getting her driver's license, but she insisted it wasn't for her. She was the sweetest person and had a real love for children. She was great teaching young children at church. When I moved to Memphis, she and Melissa would come for visits, and we always had a great time. The last 7 years we mainly just texted. She would always let her Memphis friends know when she was going on a trip. My last text from her was an update of her condition. She felt encouraged that things would eventually get better. I put a card in the mail for her the night that she passed. I truly wish I would have just called her to talk to her. I know I will see her again. I have so many memories that will keep me smiling. She'll be showing me around heaven when I get there, no doubt. I hope her family knows what a blessing she has been to so many people around her and the joy she has brought to people. We love you, Kim.

“ My husband Jim and I were blessed when God brought Kim into our lives when she began teaching in the PreK class at First Baptist Broken Arrow. She always had a positive attitude and all the kids in our PreK class through the years loved "Ms Kim" so much. Although Kim had physical challenges, she was still involved in the First Baptist choir also. Even though Kim had not been healed from her physical needs here on earth, we know that she is now healed by the Great Physician and we look forward to seeing her again in Heaven!!

“ *Goodbye, Goodbye
It came way to soon
Your smiling face has vanished
Your laughter has been silenced
Your bright optimism put out
I will never forget you my friend
Yet in my heart I know
None of this is true
Your smile is now wider
Your laughter is joyous
You have no need for optimism
As the Lord welcomes you home
No this is not goodbye
For one day I'll see you there*
