

Kurt Carey Eisenhood

March 21, 1952 - February 18, 2026

Kurt Cary Eisenhood was born March 21, 1952, in Los Angeles, California and died Feb. 18, 2026, in Tulsa, Oklahoma at age 73. He was adopted by Otis & S. Joyce Eisenhood as an infant and had a fairytale life living like a prince in Berut, Lebanon. He attended private schools in England where he learned to play polo impressively and was a significant contributor to his team's success. Kurt's family returned to Tulsa when he was 18 years old. He enjoyed attending activities and events at the American Legion and was a lifetime member.

Kurt proudly served in the US Navy before he was discharged due to health concerns after which he served as an Emergency Medical Technician for Tulsa and the surrounding area. He bravely worked as a driver on an armored car for daily cash to be deposited safely to the banks.

Kurt was preceded in death by his brother Eric Eisenhood, father Otis Wilbur Eisenhood, and mother Saro Joyce Armstrong Eisenhood Heck.

Kurt will be remembered for his feisty character and delicious peanut butter fudge.

Tribute Wall

“ Very sweet tribute to Kurt. He was my cousin on my mom’s side. We had many wonderful family gatherings with Kurt as our only male cousin. He was feisty , for sure, and he had a kind sweet side always sharing movies, food and ideas he liked. Thank you for your service and in rest in peace dear Kirt, and we will see you on the other side. 💖🙏💖
