He and his best friend of 70 years, Rick Dossett, solved many world problems standing at the fence

“ Larry will always be in my thoughts. He was the kindest man. He never said a harsh word to anyone I knew. He was smiling and positive every time I saw him. He made everyone around him smile. He always made me believe I could accomplish anything if I set my mind to it. Larry was my friend, my advisor and one of my favorite cousins. He coached me and my brothers through several years of baseball and we always thought we could beat the Yankees when he was around. I will miss him dearly. I know I can speak for everyone in my family that we love and adore him and will always remember and honor him. Our prayers and thoughts are with the family. We love you guys!! We are here for you.

Hey Johnny! I just saw this and I'm sitting here with tears running down my face! Everything you said about my dad is true! He was the kindest man and always smiling and positive! I miss him every single day and find myself wanting to call him and tell him things that have happened in my life or something that I know would make him laugh. Thank you for the kind words!
