“ ‘Our hearts are broken at the knowledge of Larry’s passing but know he is no longer suffering. Our thoughts and prayers are with Gayla, Amy, Kim, Victor, Edelda, and Helen and of course the grandchildren. \r\n\r\nWe were remembering Larry this past weekend and Paul talked about his love of Camaros and airplanes. \r\n\r\nWe wished we lived closer to you and were able to come to the service; however, with the care of Leora (who is now 100 years old), we just can’t make the trip. Know that our thoughts and hearts will be there. We love you! Paul, Delanie, Justin, Sarah and Leora Trusty.’

“ I have known Larry through our flying and working on Aircraft. A really good man. We met each other at Harvey Young Airport in Tulsa, and it was a pleasure to be around Larry because he was so nice to me and everyone. He later was with American Airlines where I worked. Our birthdays" were only one day apart but in different years. I know Larry loved his family, airplanes and church. So sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences and prayers. ’
