“ 'Casey was a wonderful mother and mother-in-law. I remember long talks around her kitchen table, wonderful Christmases with the family and, the love she had for her children. As her daughter-in-law, I was treated and loved just like her own. My most fond memories are of sitting in the back of the boat white bass fishing and her saying, " here fishy fishy" and " you"re not holding your mouth right, you"re not gonna catch any fish" She always outfished everyone! \r\n I"m delighted to know that she will be in heaven now with Royal, Bill, and Lynn. My condolences to each family member and friend who knew her and loved her. Ava Kramer'
