“ I still can't believe I won't be able to hear you ever again. You were the glue, the rock we had to hold us together. You tried to teach us to not be complicated.. You were simple if it didn't work try something else you would say. You were a good provider, and as I grew up my you were also my friend. I relied on your advice. Thank you for being there during my heartaches and making sure I didn't break. Thank you for being you and blessing my children with the best papa ever...as the twins said you were the G.O.A.T. (greatest of All Time) I love you and will miss you... But Kelsey and Ayson have their papa now . '
