February 15, 1948 - December 12, 2021

Linda Sue Call was born February 15, 1948, in Odessa, Texas, to A.L. Pennington and Helen Louise Noble Pennington. She died Sunday, December 12, 2021, in Owasso, Oklahoma, at the age of 73 years. Linda completed her secondary education in Collinsville, Oklahoma, and graduated with the Collinsville High School Class of 1966. In 1973, she married Raymond Call in Arkansas. Linda spent much of her working life as an assembly line worker with Zebco in Tulsa. She enjoyed a variety of pastimes including throwing grand Halloween parties for her grandkids and decorating for Christmas. She loved cooking and teaching her family how to cook and can. Linda always liked looking for a good bargain at garage sales and going shopping for antiques. She loved going to the casino, the beaches, and planning trips that she never took. She cared for her flower bed and tending to all her plants. She enjoyed a good wine, red beer, whiskey sours, margaritas, and mimosas. If you wonder how her liver was at the end of all this....it was just fine. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:
