“Linda and I worked together at American Airlines. She was a dear friend who will be greatly missed. We shared a great love of animals. In fact, I'm the one who gave her Bentley. I found him in the middle of the road one evening on my way home and of course Linda took him in. She was a gentle and precious soul loved by many.”

“Linda loved her church and you could always find her actively giving of herself and her time serving others. My heart goes out to the family and I pray you will be comforted in knowing she is no longer in pain. May God's Holy Spirit comfort you in your loss and rest assured in knowing she is with the Lord.”
