“ I have so many memories of growing up with my Aunt Linda. We were together for most holidays, birthdays and everything in between. We went out to eat together, oohhed and awwed over cute stuff while shopping and bought (or later made) each other countless pairs of earrings over the years. Her & my mom used to joke that I was really Linda's daughter because we loved so many of the same things- crafts, organizing, singing, jewelry and all things girly. I used to go to craft shows with her and Bill where she sold the Pysanky eggs she made. I remember when we would drive out to her and Bill's house and she would turn on Tra Le La Le La Triangle by Patsy Cline and plug in the microphone and let me sing. She made me feel like I was a soon to be famous singer, she was just so impressed. One time Linda, Mariah and I were up on the mountain and Grandma let us play with all her jewelry. We put rings on every finger and talked with a British accent while we pretended to have high tea. We also had a running joke where we always talked about how Bill was a "versatile conversationalist" lol She was very witty & silly & kept up with so many family members all the time & spent countless hours researching our family ancestry. She is missed so much but I know she is with the Lord, which is ultimately all she ever wanted. Rest in Peace Aunt Linda, you will forever be loved here.

“ Year 2018 when I first met aunt Linda. It was Thanksgiving. She was super nice and immediately told crazy jokes to me. It felt like I've know her for a long time. She gave me her pair of earrings that day without a second thought. It was so beautiful! Aunt Linda, you are a very loving person, very generous, witty, one of a kind. I'm going to miss you! I'm glad Scarlett was able to meet you, was able to experience your warm hugs. I love you aunt Linda! Thank you for driving all the way from Oklahoma just to see us, spend time with us. Thank you for the beautiful memories. Until we meet again <3

“ Where do I begin. I was unconditionally loved by my auntie. We laughed, we cried, and we fought; probably because we are so much alike. When you are this close to someone, it's hard to accept that they are gone, even though I was there right beside her when she passed. I have been told that I look like her, and that I act like her at times. I will take those comments/beliefs as the best compliments. Her perseverance in doing what was right, her loyalty and faith to her family and most of all God, and her love of life, are all the things that I hold dear. She told me stories and sang songs that I will treasure for always. No words will ever be good enough to express what my auntie means to me. I love you Auntie Linda and please give my dad a hug for me!

“ Linda did go to Wendy Ward Charm School at Montgomery Wards Department Store. She use to walk around the house with a book on her head. Kathy and I thought she was glamorous indeed.

“ I still can't believe you went to charm school! Mind boggling :). Thank you for feeding me the best cherry pie while picking your nose. And for bringing the family so much laughter over the years. I love, miss, and look forward to seeing you on the other side.

“ Aunt Linda always stood up for me when I was at that in-between stage of not being a child yet not quite an adult. Got to enjoy many adventures with the adults. Will never forget her awnrey ways. She has always had a very special place in my heart ❤️

“ Linda’s wicked sense of humor.
When I was 5 years old starting 1st grade, Linda was 13. She use to tell Kathy and I elaborate stories. She said that there were 9 of us in the family and each of us came from one of the nine planets. Linda was from Saturn. Since I was the smallest, I was from Pluto. I had no reason NOT to believe her. The first day of school, Sister Cordelia asked all the children to go down the row telling where they were from. I was quite excited since everyone else was from boring places. On my turn, I said, loudly and proudly, “PLUTO”. Sister Cordelia, asked, “Pluto, where?” I said, “Pluto the Planet”. She told me to ask at home where I was from that evening. So, I did. Linda said she got in trouble. But, not enough, I say. This story was told at every gathering at my expense.
