“ I will never forget the look on your face the first time I sang "Hello Walls" to you. From that time on, I tried to make sure you heard it every time you saw me. Lindsey, you were one of those students who made my job so much fun teaching in Catoosa. I am eternally grateful for having known you.

“ Lindsay touched so many hearts. She was a friend to many. I remember watching her with her dad when he was in the hospital and how she supported her mom when it was so hard on both of them. I love visiting with her at the hospital and her tell her stories and pick on everybody. But she was never mean she was upbeat, felt horrible, and was just praying that she would get better so that she could raise her beautiful babies. Lindsay will be miss by so many and we will make sure that your babies remember you and your love for them. God has a plan for you may you be free of illness and pain. Love you always. Prayers Kim your loved by many we are here for you. No matter what you need.

I cannot be there in person with you and your family Kim but I am there in Spirit and in Heart. I know it is all so stressful right now. Just know the Lord has everything under His control, and He is moving in your behalf. Know that you and your family are loved and cherished.
