“ I miss my Aunt Lois. Lois was always there when my Grandmother Pearl Couldn't be. My Nick name was Sissy Pooh. I loved her so much. I miss her even more. Aunt Lois was always sneaking with my Grandma Audrey Pearl. The would come to our house dressed in Holloween costumes. No one new who they were. I always caught them before they made it to the Door. They were always surprised. They always wanted to know how I new it was them. I just felt it. Plus they always walked a certain way. I would pause. Yep.. That's my Grandma, and my Aunt Lois. We would all laughed. The would tell me not to tell no one. It was always our secret. I didn't know she was gone. I didn't want to bother her with all my surgeries. Plus all my healing. I was so selfish. I loved her so much. I called her for her birthday. That was the last time I herd her voice. I didn't get to say good by. I love you Aunt Lois. You will always be the mother I never had.
