“ Mrs. Reeves, you were my first teacher here in America, I was in third grade and that was the year you retired.. you made me feel welcomed and although I did not speak english you made sure you expressed your kindness, patience and love towards me..Everyday you made sure you gave me my hug at the end of the day, you made sure kids treated me kindly and you were there for me even years after you retired, you made sure to contact me to see how I was doing and how much English I had learned,,, you sure were the kindest person I had known, you left an imprint in my heart! Always remained my favorite teacher and I never forgot you...I speak about you to my kids now 😭 I very often thought of you but I never knew your first name since I never saw you again and you were always “Mrs Reeves” to me ☐ I work at the GPS now and have asked people if they knew who you were so I can contact you, but no luck 😞 nonetheless you were always in my prayers ❤️☐ I wish I could have told you all this in person and Lord knows I tried 🤔 I even wrote you letters to the the last address I had from the last letters we used to write which was here in Guymon but they were sent back bc you didn’t live here anymore!! Today 6/19/23 I was looking through some boxes I hadn’t looked through in many years in searched for something and came across my 3rd grade yearbook(I thought I had lost it) and saw your first name 😊 so I quickly searched for you on Google and came across your obituary 😞 7 days ago you left this world... my heart is shattered at the news, I couldn’t even say goodbye 💔😭
Mrs. Reeves, you have always and WILL ALWAYS have a special place in my heart, you will be someone I will look for when it’s my time to go!!
I love you Mrs. Reeves ❤️🙏 Denisse!!
