“ I moved to Tulsa fall of 1962 and came acquainted with Sue and her family at the 10th & Rockford Church of Christ. I have lots of good memories of Sue. She was an encouragement to me and so many others of the young adults. I do believe she helped us to have get together as a group even all of us making a trip to Six Flags over Texas. We sang at weddings together, she helped us stay faithful to our Lord and Savior with her own example of faithfulness. She helped us all stay in touch through the years. She offered rides to me and others who had no transportation to get to services in those early years. For me especially, everytime I had a roommate get married she would help move me. So when I finally married, she told my husband, David that she sure was glad. because she was tired of having to move me. Of course she was teasing. I love her and hope to see her again someday. My deepest sympathies to all her family. May God and your great memories bring you much comfort. In Christian love, Louise (Ward) Jennings
