“ Margaret was an amazing woman. She honored God in her life. I watched her as a wife, mother, and grandmother. I had the privilege to be one of her pastors, so I also saw her life in and through the Church at Eastside. She was an encourager, worker, prayer warrior, in addition to giving wisdom in many areas of ministry. Her family is a legacy of how God works through those who follow Him. I thank God for Margaret's time on earth, but I give Him praise for the promise she has of eternal life with her Savior FOREVER!! Well done faithful servant, welcome to the eternal presence of the LORD!!
