She was such a a sweet lady beyond measure.
I'll never forget the memories of all of our families that grew up together at Bethel Baptist.
She will be greatly missed.
My prayers are extended out to her family and friends.
I can only imagine the beautiful reunion as she was embraced by Jesus and her loved ones that have gone before her. 💕💕

Sincerely,
Diane Finnell

Marilyn and Norm were good friends of Ruth and Earl Spickelmier. They took many trips together. Norm and Ruthie were the drivers. Ruthie is Mark's Aunt. Marilyn and Norman were often at our holiday celebrations and birthdays. They were extended family to us. I have so many memories of times with the Huffstutlers. They were such good people. We loved them.

Mark had knee replacement surgery on April 18th. He went to Tulsa Rehabilitation after the surgery. He is recovering, but it is a slow process. We were so sorry to miss the visitation and the service.

Love and prayers, Mark & Carolyn Cavins
