

Marllon Lee Cook Jr.

September 21, 1957 - April 20, 2023

Marllon Lee Cook, Jr. passed from this life on Thursday, April 20, 2023, in Claremore, Oklahoma. Marllon was born on September 21, 1957, in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma to Marllon Lee “ML” Cook, Sr. and Bonnie Lou (Pryor) Cook. Much of Marllon’s happiest childhood memories involved playing, swimming, teasing, fishing, and other various activities with his 5 siblings.

Marllon graduated from Owasso High School Class of 1975. At this high school is where Marllon met his friend, Mike Day who had a sister named Debbie. Marllon married Debra L. (Day) Cook on March 2, 1979, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. During this long loving marriage of 44 years, Marllon and Debbie had two kids, Melinda Marie Cook and Marllon Daniel Cook, and 3 grandkids, Marllon Joshua Cook, Samuel Lee Cook, and Ivy Katherine Cook.

Concrete was one of Marllon’s passions even at an early age with his family’s concrete construction company. Marllon co-owned a very successful concrete construction company with his brother Bill Cook. They built a variety of concrete types from highly detailed colored and stamped decorative concretes to large post-tensioned floor slabs.

Marllon has faithfully served the Lord for 30 years as a member of Friendship Baptist Church in Owasso. In his spare time, he enjoyed gardening, collecting coins, and spending time with family, especially his grandchildren. He is survived by:

“ Marllon was always such a nice guy! Funny, smiling, always easy going 😊 I confess I had a crush on him in high school ( who wouldn't have ?) I know his family is hurting now although as a Christian we'll all see him again! May God bless you in your time of grief. Praying for your sweet family 😊

“ He always shared tidbits of his wisdom with me. Sometimes I couldn't stop laughing, but sometimes he actually made a lot of sense, go figure!
