“ Aunt Imo was always kind and thoughtful to Janice and me. After our parents died (at ages 45 and 60), Aunt Imo and Aunt Wilma called us both on every birthday--since we no longer had parents, they wanted to fill in, even as we grew into our fifties and sixties. When we visited Aunt Imo in Collinsville, often bringing Grandma and Daddy with us, Aunt Imo cooked about 20 different dishes for one meal, many of them vegetables from her garden. Always delicious food and great welcome. We were fortunate to have such a fabulous aunt.
