“ Found out the other day a dear dear friend of mine from OK was called to heaven on Dec 31, 2025. She had many medical issues starting with a kidney transplant, cancer, arthritis and the list continues, but no matter how much pain she was in she would smile and laugh at what she could do to help her put the pain aside. We always laughed when we were together or talking. I could call her at 3a and she would answer and we would talk for at least an hour or more. If I was having a bad day I could call her and I would always end up laughing and forgetting the bad. Trips were always an adventure, never quiet laughter was always in our relationship. Mary Bigler you will be missed, but I praise God you are now actually at peace, have no more pain and your laughter can be shared with those in heaven with you. Tell all those friends and family members of ours who were waiting for you hello. You will always be loved. Praying for Dan and the rest of the family
Love you all

“ My sister Mary and I were great friends and I feel like the luckiest little brother in the world to have had her as my sister. She always protected me always look out after me and always tried to make sure I was doing the right thing no matter how hopeless that cause was. I am filled with great memories of our times together, growing up and going on family trips spending time on the phone, attending family reunions, holidays together, good times and bad times we shared them together her passing has sorrowed me greatly, and while My grief is great, my memories of her console me even greater. Thank you for being in my life Mary.

“ I have wonderful memories of my cousin, Mary. I loved spending the night with her when I was young as it was always a fun adventure. When I was older, she and I took a road trip to Nebraska to see family and that was a lot of fun for us both. As an adult I loved visiting with her when I could. She and Aunt El even made a trip to MN to see us when we moved. I know I will see her again and to know now she is no longer in pain and home with with God our Father, our Lord Jesus Christ and Aunt El, Uncle David and Barbara makes this very sad time less painful.

“ Mary and I were separated by many miles while we were children but when we got together we just picked up and the laughter would begin. Poor David and El would have to tell us to go to sleep. Fast forward to our senior years and we have poor Dan shaking his head and saying what could you be talking about till 3:00am every night to morning. Our poor darling Mary couldn't do everything that everyone else could do. These last years had been so hard and she was ready to go. Mary still never lost her humor. I will miss our nightly talks. Her laughter and love of her friends and family. I thank God for Dan as he kept our Mary with us much longer then expected.

I Respect and honor him. Love Loretta McCord Holloway
