

Mary Lou Morris

August 10, 1935 - February 27, 2025

Mary Lou Morris, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully at her daughter's home in Sand Springs on February 27, 2025. She was born on August 10, 1935, in Maud, Oklahoma, to Floyd Otho Wilcox Sr. and Ava Alice Wilcox. After losing her mother as an infant, she was lovingly raised by her father and stepmother, Hazel Burton Wilcox, who became a wonderful mother to her.

Mary Lou was preceded in death by her siblings Rosa Gear, Floyd Otho Wilcox Jr., Wanda Jean Bales, Charlene Anderson, and Lenora Wilcox. She is survived by her brother, Charles Wilcox of Tecumseh, Oklahoma and numerous nieces and nephews.

On June 10, 1955, she married her high school sweetheart, David Roger Morris. Together, they shared more than 54 years of love and adventure until his passing in 2007. As a military wife, she traveled across the United States and Canada, living in various places during David's 20-year service.

Mary Lou was a devoted mother to her two daughters, Mary Hayes of Sand Springs, Oklahoma, and Donna Caves of Cleveland, Oklahoma. She cherished her role as a grandmother to six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her family as she operated an in-home daycare for many years, forming lasting bonds with the children she cared for—many of whom remained in touch with her as they grew into adulthood.

She was a lifelong member of the Church of Christ, where she found strength in her faith and deep connections with her community. She is also survived by her first cousin and lifelong best friend, Bettie Sanders, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, laughter, and friendship.

Mary Lou's warmth, kindness, and unwavering love will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Her legacy lives on in the hearts of her family, friends, and all the lives she touched.
