“ I worked with Scott for many years. I can't recall a time that he was not a true gentleman in any conversations we had. He is one of an elite group of people that I know who under any circumstance remained thoughtful, respectful and supportive of the situation. I have tried to take some of those attributes to task over the years to help myself become more like Scott. We will miss him.

“ *Anna and Family,
Scott was so much for so many people. Out of all my memories it will be Scotts dedication to God and Family that will stay with me most. He loved the Lord and Loved his family so much. I cant make sense why but know god has a greater plan. My family is praying for comfort during this trying time.
