“ There are few times in our lives where the receipt of (horrible) news takes your breath away. This was certainly one of those times. Unfortunately I had lost direct contact w “Big Art” but followed him on Facebook... Mike and Chris and I, along w others, sure had fun during our days in Dover; loved the yellow Dodge van! To Chris, Kim, and Pat my heartfelt condolences. To Mike’s wife and family, you know he was one of the good ones... Until we meet again “Big Art”. Save me a spot on your pickup hoops team, cause “we got next” May God wrap him in his arms and your memories be a blessing.

“ Coach Mike was one of my first coaches in life and led our soccer team for several years growing up. As an adult now, and as a father looking back on my childhood, coaching little kids is a big responsibility. A coach is someone children look up to as they are developing and just beginning to understand the world around them. Mike was disciplined, encouraging, and fun to be around. I really had some great times out on the field with the boys and Coach Mike. And I recall we handed our opponents some pretty good losses during those years. My thoughts are with the family during this time.

“ Mike was my best friend at American Airlines. We worked together as mechanics in the late 80s. We went on a field trip to SFO to work on an engine. I got a picture of him sitting on top of a BAE146 engine in the engine shop riding it like a cowboy! My last couple of years before I retired I was assigned to Test Cell 4 Intro After Test shop. My desk was right next to Mike’s rather large work area he had named “Artieville”. He was mayor, sheriff, golf pro, treasurer and anything he wanted to be! We would laugh and carry on all day. Sometimes we would discuss and debate finer points of just about everything. One day someone came up and asked “how long we had been married” which caused us to laugh even harder. He always wore shorts to work no matter the weather. He was a friend to all. A great husband, father and grandfather. He loved his grandkids! I’ll miss you my brother!
