“ 'To our Big Brother, Michael. It has been a true blessing to have you in our lives, all part of the same family. We always called ourselves The Three Musketeers, all for one and one for all. You were the first born, but I followed next, and then Rocky, making us a close knit set of siblings. God gave you unique talents. You blessed us with your beautiful voice and your ability to play a guitar by ear. You only had to hear a song played once and you could repeat it perfectly. It was my honor to be your caregiver for the time we had together these last 20 years. Now I see you in Heaven, completely well and happy, in the presence of God and with the rest of our family. We miss you beyond belief, we love you beyond measure. We will meet again, brother, on the other side of Heaven"s gates!!!'
