“ I worked with Mike at Helmerich & Payne when I was an intern, after graduating ORU. He was always welcoming to me and helped me through the internship.

“ This is quite a blow to hear, I met Michael at my small group and later working with him at church. He was always such a joy to see and he had such a caring heart in his ministry helping. I know that we will all see him again, and he is with his Father now and he has that great joy which we will all see. But the smile on his face and his presence here will be greatly missed. To his parents you raised a great man of God and you can be proud of that. My heart goes out to all the family and loved ones.

*A brother in Christ

“ Mike had so many friends at H&P. We cannot imagine your grief and loss. Upon knowing Mike, one knew how much he loved and cared for his family. Several international friends have emailed us with memories of Venezuela, meeting at their homes for dinner and working in Venezuela and international countries. He always had a smile for us, just like the picture here. I remember talking with him about his CPA exam and I was so thrilled he stayed and talked with me; he was typically so quiet. We were very lucky to have Mike working as our International Accounting Supervisor. His work ethic and professionalism was matched by his intelligence and confidentiality. You could trust Mike in everything he did and said. Wonderful qualities in a person. We will never forget Mike.

“ What a great guy.. Just being around him made me want to be a better man. He was always in a good mood. Great big heart. You couldn't spend time with Michael and walk away not feeling the love of Jesus.

I remember, last year I had a back injury and he offered to come mow my lawn. It was hot outside and all it needed was the basic grass cutting and that's it. But he not only mowed it, he brought a weed eater and blower and gave it the works. That's just the way Michael was.

Our men's group won't be the same without him but our lives were made better because of him. Miss you bro!
