“ Michele was one of the kindest, most thoughtful people I know. She shared her love with many of us through food. Whether it was making homemade soup and delivering it to a sick friends doorstep...or making pumpkin pie for my daughter because Michele made it better...or the endless amazing cookies she would show up to work with...and the Lasagna! Best lasagna ever made. She also would talk and listen and share advise. She was so kind...but at the same time would not take crap from anyone. She had a smile and a laugh that would make my day. She loved everyone and had never met a stranger. I will miss my friend greatly.

“ Met Mick at the start of soccer season 22 years ago. Our daughters played soccer together on the same team for years. We quickly became friends and our nights and days ran into each other having fun, dinners and pool parties, card games and finally making the big trip to Antiqua. You will be missed Michele

“ I worked with Michele for about 20 years and she was the most loving, kind, giving, caring person I've known. She cared about her coworkers. She constantly showed us love with her cooking. She loved to bake and cook and she was always bringing us new things that she had "experimented with". And we loved every bite! No one could get enough of Michele's cooking. Any time there was a birthday, we all wanted Michele to make us one of her amazing cakes. She was a light to everyone around her. She loved to talk & that might have been the only thing that got her in trouble around here! Haha. But we would always listen to her stories because she was that kind of person. You just couldn't help but love her. I know she struggled for the past year, and it broke my heart to see her changing before my eyes. I loved her and I will truly miss her smiles and her stories. She always called me "Wonder Woman", but she was the real Wonder Woman. My prayers go out to her loved ones. You did all you could. May God give you the peace and healing that only He can provide.

With Love,

“ My strongest memories of Michele was the bond and immense love she had for her family. They are everything to her. And I'll never forget the fun we had when she stayed at our house for a weekend. Her silly antics - and a story that will always make me laugh. We will miss you Michele and are so deeply sorry for all you went through. Wishing Scott, Ariel, AJ and the family peace and strength at this most difficult time. Much love. Abby. Xo. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Words can never express the depth and pain left by the passing of a loved one, who departs this earth before their time. Words and actions should however comfort the family and friends of Michelle Storer, a fine woman, who I truly feel blessed to have known.

We all struggle with the demons of life and some of us are fortunate to have never been fully in the grips of the worst of the demons, mental health. I know many including myself who take the depression medications, do the counseling, and reach out to loved ones and friends when situations seem like there is not hope. I have also unfortunately known several close friends, who have been in the grips of one of the worst of demons, no hope.

The Michele I knew for the past 28 years was a beautiful, loving, caring and plain spoken to the point woman. She expressed her love for her husband, son, family, and friends on many Christmases when we were shared the holiday dinners and occasionally a glass of bourbon. Ok, truth be told, we had more than one! She would light up when she spoke of AJ, Ariel, Scott and her mother, family and friends. She was a hard worker, a great mom, a passionate lover of dogs and someone who could keep a conversation going. Beautiful inside and out, loving, caring, fun loving and to the point, that is how I will always remember Michelle.

Along with the many happy conversations we had, as “the sterling/storer in-laws”, there was one day which still makes me laugh every time I think of it. She looked out the back window of our house as we were talking, stopped her conversation mid-sentence and belted out, “Your dog is eating dog crap in the back yard” Now many of us may have softened the blow of your dog eating crap a bit but not our beloved Michele. She was going to tell it to you as it is.

I choose to remember Michelle in the moments of silence with gratitude for having known her as a woman of love, passion for her family and friends and a genuinely good person. There is no doubt in my mind that the Christ will welcome her into heaven and forgive her for any sins she may have committed. We all have a few sins, don't we? I believe in the teachings of Christ and I believe in forgiveness and love. There are none of us who have not done things we wish we could take back or done differently.

I also honestly believe that the Michelle, I knew and loved would want us all to reach out and tell those who we love that we value them, love them and are here for them. In our darkest moments of thought, we should all know there are those that love us, believe in us (most of the time) and support us.

We are not put on this earth to stand in constant judgement of others. As my sister says, you have no idea of what really goes on in someone else's life. Good kind, caring, and loving actions is what will get us into heaven. That is what I was taught and that is what I believe in my core. I know that Christ has seen Michelle do those things throughout all her life.

We can all wish that we could have done more to get her to see that, but God chose otherwise, and we should not question when he calls one of his one to his flock. May perpetual light shine upon her beautiful soul and may we always remember her with a smile.

“ There are so many memories I have Mick. One that puts a smile on my face, my youngest daughter's name is Brianna. Mick / Scott would watch her sometimes for my husband and I. Once I heard Mick call Brianna --- Bri --- I was like, nope her name is Brianna. LOL she was like, ok no problem. Next thing I know I am calling her Bri. And to this day, we call her by Bri. I will always remember where her nickname came from. It is a good one Mick....I love you and miss you dearly. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Michele was always there for me when I was a little girl, she had such a kind loving heart, we would do arts and crafts and she would braid my hair every time I asked, & she made the best grilled cheese! In my adult life now, I loved running into her at neighborhood market in Owasso and getting to catch up every now and again. She had a beautiful smile and will be greatly missed. Prayers for the family.

“ I’ve known Michele since I was probably 5 years old I’m now 34 . She was my neighbor In sandsprings she was the best. She would always have me and my sisters over to play and make us grilled cheese sandwiches they were so good . One day my parents weren’t home and I had opened a bottle of super glue with my teeth and it spilled all in my mouth down my chest and I didn’t know what to do so I ran over to Michele’s house and she helped me . I eventually moved to Owasso and would see Michele a lot when I was out and about she was always so nice she will be missed ❤️
