“ I will always remember the time everyone came to California to celebrate Jocelyn's quince. It was the most fun I've ever had and the last time we were all able to be together as a whole family. You made me laugh the whole time you were here with your jokes and you made everyone around you smile. Even when you weren't physically here you still made me laugh when you were on the phone with my mom and I'd overhear all your conversations. I'm going to miss you tio santi I will never forget the memories I was able to share with you.

“ Santi was my nino, and I wish I would have got to know him better. To this day, my best memory of him was when he and his family spent Christmas with us. I can still visualize parts of that day in my mind and it is the Christmas that sticks out the most for me. I wish I was closer to him. He means so much to my mom and the rest of his family and hope his family can find peace in this time.

“ My uncle santiago will forever be in my gear and memories as someone who went above and beyond to make us feel comfortable and at peace whenever he was around. I will always remember how he would call me papi chulo and hype me up. He was always kind and giving, my childhood wouldn't have been the same without the love and joy my uncle shared with me. Tio chago is a bright light in a world with so much darkness and I know he will always be with me. I love you Santi, and I hope you rest peacefully

“ Santiago was my brother in law, I met him when he was 15 years old, he was always happy, full of energy and would like cracking jokes. I will never forget how he loved to play baseball. He was the type of person that would give you the shirt off his back. He loved his family and friends, he will be greatly missed, Rest In Peace Santi.
