“ 'Although it has been years since we last saw each other, we would touch base once in a while through Christmas cards and an occasional phone call. Pat would share stories from her mom and my dad. My condolences as my memories of cousin Pat always seemed very lively and fun loving.\r\n\r\n"Toots" (daughter of Carl and June Armstrong)'

“ ‘Aunt Pat, I can't wait for my next hug from you when we meet in heaven. Rejoice as you meet our Savior...but we will be mourning your passing with the trust and hope that comes in Christ. I love you! Hugs and condolences to those closer to you than I. ’

“ ‘As one of Debbie's moms best friends, "Aunt Pat" was family from the beginning. She loved us through childhood and then took on the role of "grandparent" to our children. We hold many fond memories of you. Unfortunately, our times together diminished when you moved from California, but being close to your only son and family was your hearts desire. Sorry we didn't get to say good-bye. We'll treasure our times together and know heaven waits - we'll see you there! Love and sympathy to Mike, Shawnda and Briegette.’
