“ my name is debbie rosenthal treutlein. I grew up with lisa and was in her home sometimes more that my own. I remember patsy as a wonderful, loving woman and I have many memories of her. I was telling my husband about a trip to the O.U. campus the year before lisa and I started there as room mates. lisa, patsy, my mother, and I were on rt 66 when the car we were in broke down. lisa and I started walking and before we got very far, a group of boys picked us up and took us to the next town (you could do that then). our moms were so mad!!! I told this before I knew about patsy's death as we were near that area on the way home from another trip. how odd. my best wishes and deep sorrow for pasty's passing. my mom died 3.5 yrs of the same thing and I miss her every day.
