“ Grandma was a hard worker & a Head Strong woman! She Was loved & known by so many. She lived her Faith & taught us all to believe in the Lord. I'm so Grateful for all the Childhood Family Memories I have of her & my Grandpa. Starting with our Family Sunday lunches after church ...She loved cooking... My favorites she would make me... was my Pineapple Cream Pie & ice cream with Fresh Cut up Strawberries & my dads Banana pudding. She would make gift baskets for us grandkids with snacks of fruit and a can of cashews and our tiny glass bottles of Welch's Grape juice we loved so much. Our small red wood wicker rocking chair she had that all of us kids shared, she still has it, I found hid it in her closet behind the door... it made me smile....all of us kids went Swimming in a round steel stock Tank they got us to use as a swimming pool that we thought was Greatest thing! We all played Croquet & Tether & Volleyball in the back yard.. she loved the Farm life and so did all of us kids... I remember Feeding the Cows & Horses & their longhorn Grey bull with them & Driving the Tracker & old Ford brown truck with them in the field . Sooo many things I will never forget. I'm so gunna miss her & her calling me Sherry Berry! The Family was very important to her. She always made us feel special. I'm going to miss Grandma Dearly. 🍷🙏

“ Shortly after being married to Larry, we were having Sunday dinner with Kenneth and Pat. I remember being really thirsty. I notice a brown coffee mug in the dish drainer. I took the cup, poured water and was drinking from her cup... She walked into the kitchen and proceeded to tell me, the cup I was drinking from was her cup, and no one ever drinks from that cup! I quickly poured out the water, washed the cup in water hot enough to scald a chicken and put it back where I found it! Needless to say it became a standing joke between her and me... what happened to the cup? Not sure, but I DO NOT HAVE it... Laughter fills my heart as I remember that time I drank from the Brown Cup.
