“ 'Bradley Family, so sorry to hear about your loss of Paul passing. Paul gave me my first job at Cardinal Food Store when I was 15 in 1964. I worked with him until I went into the Army in 1968. When I got out in 1971 he gave me my old job back. Always kind and caring. I wish I would have known he was living about a mile from where I live here in Broken Arrow, I would have loved to visit with him again.\r\nPrayers to you all.\r\n\r\nGary Wright'
