Peggy was my favorite cousin. Although I didn't keep in touch as much as I wanted to, but I thought of her often.

Peggy will be missed by so many. My mother Elaine, who is 100, lives at Liberty Place and that is how we became friends with her. We loved her from the moment we meet her. Peggy always had a smile and was so much fun to visit with. Dressed so stylish and loved her jewelry!! Our prayers are with her family. We so miss seeing her ❤️
