“ 'So sorry for the McCullough family loss. Peggy always carried herself with dignity, poise, and grace. Anytime I was around her, she treated me like one of her own sons. No doubt in my mind where she now resides. God gained another angel this past Saturday!'

“ 'Mamaw Peggy- just doesn't seem real that you are really gone. I NEVER imagined life without you in it. You were our rock, mentor, someone we could ALL count on! You taught Garrett and I so much about hard work, setting our mind to something and doing it, being independent, and always doing what's right! I am so thankful that you were always a 4 wheeler drive away growing up. I love you- and will see you again soon! Love your "bossy, loud" granddaughter.'
