“ 'I will always remember you as such a nice and caring person. It sucks that bad things happen to good people because you were a good person and you had terrible people do horrible things to you, but now you are at peace watching over all of us. I wish I got to see you more often than I did, but I always will remember you as I did when I was younger and that is fun loving. Please watch over my Mom she"s needs a guardian angel like you. RIP Uncle Phil Love you!'

“ 'The pain and sorrow I feel for my baby brother can not be expressed in words. He has had probably the most painful emotionally and physically life that a human soul could bear. He is now in peace. No more pain. I will forrver have a huge tear in my heart for what he had to endure in this life. But am at peace that he is with his loving God and no longer has to deal with this life and all the uncaring and heartless people in it. RIP My dear Phil'
