“ She was a mother to all and she genuinely loved all children in the family and her friends family. She would smile even if she wasn't happy or feeling well.

Our mother was an angel and she loved angels . Her favorite color was mauve and pink. Our parents loved Christmas and thanksgiving.they both believed in Christ and they taught us how to be Christians and manors.most of all to respect other's first before ourselves. Mom always said dad was her rock and she was lost without him but she had all of us as her rock afterwards. We will always miss everything about her and that smile. Love you bunches and bunches and forever mother.
