“ I competed against Richard and the company GO FIT. Richard was highly respected in our industry and we had a mutual respect for each other even though we competed for business sales. I was shocked to learn of his passing and sending my condolences to his family. You were a true gentleman and I enjoyed our friendship.

“ Rich and I were dog friends and while I have no connection to his family they should know that he was a valued and cherished member of the retriever community. Rich was a great guy, a voice of reason, and a great asset to our small dog community, he will be sorely missed for his sportsmanship and his considerable contributions to retriever field trials, a terrible loss for all of us.

“ Our hearts are broke at the loss of our dear friend. I remember meeting Rich for the first time and immediately thinking, "what a great guy." My first thought turned out to be true and we later became good friends, officers on the TRC board, running dogs, putting on field trials and more. Rich was gracious with his friendship, his time, resources and truly loved and adored his family. He was a devoted friend to his Midway crew and to the retriever community. I know that piece of Rich was just a small glimpse into his life as he was a successful businessman, incredible athlete, solid brother, husband, son and the list goes on. We will miss him forever. Continued prayers for the family and friends. God Bless.
