“ ‘She’ll be back you said; and she was later. Most importantly, you helped teach me family is more than blood. Family is friends. Family is helping those in need. A friend of yours is a friend of mine and vice versa. Thanks for everything man! I love you and you will be dearly missed.’

“ ‘ever got to be a part of. I learned there is nothing better than time spent with friends and family. You helped teach me you can be a great husband w/o changing who I am. Just make sure you know your limits and when to say you’re sorry and know when it’s best to just be quiet. Of course you’ve got to have a great and patient lady on the other side for all of that work. I’ll never forget the night, Kelly was still pregnant with Ant, I was hanging out with you and the rest of the guys from the old cul-de-sac tossing back a few on one of the porches across the way from yours and my places. It was after midnight. Suddenly we saw a shadowy figure making trips in and out of my duplex carrying things to Kelly’s car. I was going to head things off and I believe it was at that point you pointed out it might be best to let her leave for that moment as I was in no shape for discussing (and we all obviously knew what it was) what the issue might be. She’ll be back you s’

“ ‘Dicky, I can't not going to be able to make your service. Here is what I'll be thinking about between now and then and beyond. I can't keep from thinking (smiling inside) that Nanny probably already had about enough of you. :) I can't thank Nanny and you enough for all you did for me and my family, especially in those early years. I know that Alix and Anthony miss you both very much. The flexibility you and Nanny provided for me with Anthony helped me get through college while Kelly continued to work her full time crazy hours. There were several things I learned from you over the years, not necessarily a lecture or anything like that, but rather by example. You helped teach me the game of horseshoes. Those Saturday (and 4th of July) bar-b-que and horseshoe afternoons that turned into Saturday nights and then usually wee hours of Sunday mornings were some of my most favorite can't miss events I ever got to be a part of. I learned there is nothing better t'

“ ‘Dickster was our neighbor for 10 years. We continued to stay in touch weekly for the next 18 years. We have had some of the best times of our lives with Dick and Joyce. We miss them both dearly. We know our loss can not be matched to the loss felt by his family. He was one of the best men we ever knew and a sense of humor I think Shea inherited. Dick is at peace and in time the rest of his family and friends will have some peace and comfort. Love and prayers to all his family. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.’
