“ He was the Best Brother in law a girl could ask for. He was always there for me. He Loved my Sister completely. The last words I will ever hear is he said I Love You Janie. I will treasure that for the rest of my life.💜

“ Those of us who were able to play music with Dick will forever be blessed because of it. His musical presence was larger than life. He was a great trumpet player and a wonderful friend. He also made everyone around him laugh. I will always remember you, my friend. Thank you for allowing me to play music with you.
