“ Rick was a "big" brother while we were growing up.
Thank you for being there.

“ I have know Rick for 50 years. He served with my dad in the United States Air Force. But, more than that, he was a good friend. Rick and my dad had a long friendship and enjoyed many stories, tales and jokes. Not all being suitable for family or young children. He made the effort to visit my Dad in NC when he was able. After my dad's death, he was still part of our family, a much loved older brother. Over the years he enjoyed a great relationship with my sister Mary. They shared life stories, health issues, dog stories, vacation ideas, photos and much more.

I enjoyed his many stories of life in Arizona and the Superstition Mountains, He definitely had a way with words and was a fantastic storyteller. He might have missed his calling.

Most of all, I will just miss his friendship. Hearing him laugh and telling a joke. Prayers for all of his family. Becky Cowan
