“ I remember one time Bob said to me, Keep your chin up. It’s not as bad as you think it is.” “You’ll be all right.”
And he was always really funny.

“ The thing I remember most about Bob is that he was that he had a smile and a kind word for everyone. To spend a few moments with him was to know he was your friend.

“ Oh Bob I am so sad. Love you dearly. Such a good man, husband, father and friend. You will be missed so very much and never forgotten. Know without any doubt you will be with your sweet Susan and your family again, however it will be so hard not to see your beautiful smiling face daily.
