“ Our relationship was with Troop 222. I was a recruiter for the Troop and enjoyed that but mostly enjoyed cooking with Bob. He is the reason I have 7 Dutch ovens. On of our favorite “car” camping events was at the Lazy 4F Ranch. Easy camping, beautiful country. And if you needed to sneak to the house for a break, it was there for you. Bob was a great man and advocate for Scouting. He loved you, Laurel, with all his heart.

“ I knew Bob through scouting at Troops 222 and 2222. Bob was one of the core leaders for both troops and impacted the lives of many many scouts across the council. His calm demeanor and leadership abilities were his trademark characteristics. If you were in scouting at all with Bob, the other thing that immediately come to mind is food! Bob and Brian were known throughout the council for their smoke meats, green bean casserole and yummy appetizers. I enjoyed watching Bob working with scouts in all the scouting activities from Tenderfoot to guiding a scout with their Eagle project. Bob not only was a core contributor to the troop, but also assisted with many council activities. It's going to be hard attending a scouting activity and not seeing Bob and listening to his stories and experiences over his life. I will miss him greatly.

“ Bob designed and built the Eagle Recognition displays at John Knox for T222, where many of our Eagle scouts are memorialized and recognized. He helped design neckerchiefs, High Adventure T-shirts, Philmont Trek T shirts, scout rank advancement awards, and more. We enjoyed talking about our cars, scouting, cooking, drafting, woodworking, and how to help young men advance in BSA. Bob was frequently asked to speak on behalf of an Eagle Candidate in our Eagle courts of Honor, was often recognized as a mentor, and helped work on many Eagle Projects. It was a pleasure and an honor to have known and worked with Bob, a very kind, devoted and open hearted gentleman.

Grew up with Bobby and Rita Kay at First Christian Church in Owasso. So many memories of their family, our youth group , Sunday School, Hayrides, church camp. Such sweet memories. Bobby was always such a nice guy and as the years went by he never seemed to age. Always looked the same. Always recognizable, always friendly and very sweet man. Didn't see him too often in these later years but always a pleasure to see him and able to reminisce. He was truly "one of the good guys ". Rest In Peace Bobby. Know you are enjoying being with your Mom and Dad and Rita Kay. Judy (Smith) and Lynn Barter

“ I have many fond memories of Bob. From when he was in college and came to our house just to hang out and visit, to finding out we woke him and his scout troop up when they were camping on Fort Gibson lake, and we showed up at four in the morning to fish a tournament. And we made little effort to be quite! Will miss his charming smile when we have our get togethers too. Rest in Peace Bob.
