“ 'I am blessed to have had Robert as my Brother. He was my brother/BFF/mentor. Robert had to take on the responsibility of caring for 6 younger siblings @ the age of 14, due to our Dad's disabilities. He could not have "normal" teen years, because of this, but he never complained/ continued to help us after HS graduation. Robert was the most loving/caring/giving/unselfish person I will ever know. As I told him in October, "I will see you in Heaven" . . . RIP, Robert William James Holestine!' ”
