“ I was so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. I enjoyed working with him at United Airlines for many years. He was a highly valued and respected Team Tulsa employee. His work ethic exceeded that of most. He always set a good example. He would so often talk about his loving family in which he was so very proud. My sincere condolences to each of you. '

“ 'Mike and family,\r\n Your dad always encouraged us ! I remember Mr. Voigt was coaching our basketball team. Although Mike pretty well carried the team, your dad would always encourage and seemed to find at least one thing players were good at. (I think I could make a left handed lay-up; on rare occasions). \r\n Once after a tough loss, your dad went around and complimented each kid !!!\r\nI will never forget how that made me feel. I still remember and cherish that memory.\r\n John Hammack '
