“ *I am really sorry to learn about the passing of Rod. As an engineer at Butler Construction, I worked with Rod many years. He was a great construction manager and even a better person. I really learned a lot from him. We had some great visits about football, golf and especially Deer Hunting. I will always remember being on a jobsite and see how everyone shaped up when the guy with the black cowboy hard hat pulled up in the golf cart. I considered him a great friend and will miss him. “ Growing up, every visit from "Uncle Rod" was memorable. There are so many "Rodism's" that I heard, many of which I probably shouldn't post here. A safe one - I noticed he hadn't eaten during a golf outing - so I was heading to the grill after 9 holes and asked if he wanted anything. He picked up his Bud, winked and said "two pork chops in every can." I loved watching my Dad, Uncle Rod and Uncle Roger during the Fisher Golf outings and will forever cherish those memories.

“ Rod came by the office many times over the years to see Anessa. You could tell that he loved her very much.
