“ Ron and his wife, Irene, were good friends of ours for many years, we shared so many laughs and celebrated our anniversaries and birthdays together until they moved away, but were able to sneak in a few more celebrations after that. We've missed them and always kept them in our thoughts and prayers, especially as Ron was slowly leaving us. So glad for all the good memories. A special time was when they came to Missouri with Marissa and her husband to help celebrate our 50th anniversary. We love you Irene and look forward to meeting with Ron again in Heaven.. Thanks for the memories!!

All or love, Rich and Margie
